

BOUND FOR BUSAN

Indo-Korean Art Competition

It was a moment of pride for PSBB Nungambakkam, when Adhithi Balaji and Amala Peri, of 12 A were declared the silver and bronze medallists (respectively) in the preliminary round of the prestigious InKo (Indo Korean) Art competition, organised by the Indo Korean Cultural and Information Centre.

Students (13 to 17 years) from across Tamil Nadu gave in their drawings on the topic- 'Iconic Places in my City' to the organisers of the competition, through their schools. Their entries went through 2 rounds of selections and judging, one at the Indo Korean Cultural Academy, and the other in Korea.

Adhithi and Amala, along with 24 other students from across the state will now go in for the next round of competitions on a cultural exchange programme to Busan, Korea in the first week of August (1st to 7th August). Competitors from Japan and Korea will also be a part of the cultural exchange.

Kudos to our budding artists and wishing them good luck for the upcoming competitions!

Adhithi's painting of the Marina beach - View from the light house
(medium-acrylic)

Amala's painting of the Central Station, Chennai
(medium-acrylic)

Reporter,
Cyber Pigeons, PSBB NGM