

A Talented Social Warrior

Avyukth Bala of 2 D, PSBB T. Nagar participated in an All India National Level drawing and essay writing competition organized by Kids Events. The theme of the event was "National Tiger Day 2021".

He has won 1st place in both drawing and essay writing.

Avyukth Bala also had the privilege of interviewing Colonel Vembu Shankar, a Shaurya Chakra Awardee, an Indian Army veteran –Founder, Project Sambandh for this Independence Day.

He asked him regarding his Project which helps locate widows and orphaned children of soldiers who have lost their life in non-operational circumstances and help them to connect to the Army for entitlements. Avyukth's question of how could he, as a child, help in the project drew appreciation from the Colonel.

Avyukth has crowd funded for around 100 trees to be planted as well as for a library for underprivileged children and the Colonel said he was happy to interact with the young 'social warrior'
